- Zoning: ADS-2 (Townhouses, subtype 2)
- Urban land with full planning permission (Detailed Study ED.339 approved)
- Required road dedication: 555 m<sup>2</sup>
- Minimum setback from roadway: 18 meters
- Steep slope from north to south with approx. 15m elevation difference

The parcel is part of a fully approved urban development plan and is ideal for a residential complex of attached homes (townhouses). The buildable surface and zoning regulations make it perfect for developers looking to create an exclusive community in a natural setting, while remaining well-connected to local services and amenities.

Development Requirements:

To obtain a building license, a basic building project must be prepared, along with reports from utility providers. The construction process requires an execution project, certifications from all involved technicians (architect, technical architect, safety coordinator), and registration of the construction site.

This is a rare opportunity to secure a ready-to-develop residential plot in one of the Costa del Sol's most attractive areas.
